

with other health care providers, they are required to maintain compliance with all applicable laws, including antitrust provisions. DSRIP also mandates that RRUø organizational and contractual documents adhere to federal and state legal requirements, such as antitrust laws and federal fraud and abuse provisions.

